

In This Together: Belonging & Brave Spaces

In This Together: Belonging & Brave Spaces

Theme: Creating Inclusive Communities

Core Values: Belonging & Inclusion

What It Means:

Belonging and inclusion are foundational to building a community that reflects God's love for all creation. As Catholic institutions are called to be places of radical hospitality, Principle 1

(<https://stthomas.instructure.com/courses/84343/files/10566170?wrap=1>) ↓

(https://stthomas.instructure.com/courses/84343/files/10566170/download?download_frd=1) urges us to foster a climate where all feel welcomed and valued. As a student leader, your role is to make visible efforts to include others—especially those who are overlooked or marginalized.

Refer to the In This Together: Glossary of Terms

(<https://stthomas.instructure.com/courses/84343/pages/in-this-together-glossary-of-terms>) as needed.

Reflection & Discussion Prompts:

- Describe a moment you felt a deep sense of belonging
- How can your leadership in the RA role actively welcome residents who may feel left out or overlooked on campus?
- Imagine a resident came to you noting that their neighbor told them a joke targeting their identity. What are some ways you can make all your residents feel welcomed and included in the future?
 - NOTE: we have procedures for what you need to do once you learn this information, but we want you to focus on how you will foster inclusion and make your residents feel welcome going forward.

Connection in SLED:

During August SLED, we consistently refer to sense of belonging - you will likely hear it and/or reflect on it in almost every session. In addition to sessions, we cover belonging during:

- Team Time Discussion / Reflection
- BCD Day 1 (Hateful Symbol)

My Commitment:

One action I will take to make others feel welcome is: