

In This Together: Final Reflection

In This Together: Final Reflection

We go forth as leaders who engage with compassion, act in solidarity, speak with respect, and build spaces of belonging - in the spirit of justice and love.

Reflection Prompts:

- How has your understanding of leadership changed through SLED and the In This Together module?
- What personal values do you consider as essential to your role as a student leader?
- What have you learned about yourself in the way you respond to differences?

Ongoing Reflection

You are encouraged to continue reflecting on this and discussing it with your CD/GSA in your 1:1s and team meetings throughout the year.

Affirmation & Charge:

Write one word that represents the leader you want to be:
