In This Together: Rooted in Dignity

---

Theme: Leading with the Dignity of the Human Person

Core Values: Care & Compassion

What It Means:

Leading with care and compassion means acknowledging the sacredness of every person and responding to their needs with empathy. It is rooted in the Catholic belief that each individual is made in the image of God and deserves to be treated with dignity and love. This aligns with Principle 4

Reflection & Discussion Prompts:

- What does being treated with dignity and love look like in action?
  - How do you know? Who taught you?
  - Describe a time when someone treated you with deep care and respect
- What does it mean to honor someone's dignity across differences in experience, identity, culture, or opinion?
- Imagine a resident came to you upset because they feel like their roommate is ignoring them due to their experience or identity. How would you respond with empathy?
  - NOTE: we have procedures for what you might need to do once you learn this information, but we want you to focus on how to respond with empathy in this moment

Connection in SLED:

During August SLED, we cover leading with the dignity of every human person through care & compassion during almost all of our sessions from offices across campus. In addition, we focus on it during:

- IDI Group Debrief Session with Beth Zemsky
- Roommate Agreements & Conflict Resolution Process Session
- Narrative4 Session

Listening with empathy is one of the skills we want all of our residents to learn as well; we have a Community Communication and Community Meeting focused on this.

My Commitment:

One way I will lead with compassion as an RA is:
